

AUTHORITIES ARE AGAINST FOOTBALL

Trinity Students Fail to Impress With Parade—Bishop Kilgo Makes Statement.

Durham, N. C., November 7.—"Any student who has his heart set on playing football can honorably go to an institution where the game is played. To play here is direct rebellion against authority, and the leaders and those taking part in the game will be expelled from this college immediately," was the emphatic statement of Dean W. I. Crawford in a chapel address this morning.

Dean Crawford expressed himself in a clear manner that was impossible to misunderstand concerning the position of the college authorities in regard to the athletic question here. He declared that such a demonstration as was exhibited here last night, when the students formed a parade in the army and marched uptown, creating a general furor of excitement in the business district, and proceeded to the mansion of Benjamin N. Duke, where they demanded his presence in regard to football, would delay the coming of the game to Trinity College a quarter of a century.

"No amount of the game, even five or ten minutes play, either varsity, class or scrub, will be tolerated for a moment here. Any man who defies authority and plays anyhow will be expelled."

The present set of students at this institution is as good as any crowd of students that has ever assembled here. They are urged on to this sort of demonstration by fanatics, who will assuredly be sent away from the college as soon as their identity can be learned by the authorities.

"A public demonstration is not the way to secure anything here. If the students want anything that they do not have, let them go and get it from the proper authorities. The hope for football, however, is a forlorn hope, and I assure you that you will never get the game here, not in this generation at any rate."

He classified the parading last night as a disorderly disturbance and expressed the hope that the students would not get it into the habit of repeating such a performance.

Although a damper was necessarily thrown over the enthusiasm of the crowd generally by this speech, a deep-seated sentiment still prevails in the community. A number of more prominent participants in last night's episode were summoned before the authorities this morning and given a lecture and a warning that further demonstration on their part would mean their expulsion. It is estimated that a large part of the student body will leave college voluntarily if any expulsions result from last night's performance.

The sentiment in the city is strongly in favor of the students' side of the question. The people of Durham would be glad to see football return to the city.

Bishop John C. Kilgo is bitterly opposed to football, and declares that as long as he has any connection with Trinity College and its affairs, football will be prohibited here. Last night Bishop Kilgo was delivering an address to the V. M. C. A. men when a crowd of enthusiasts congregated on the campus and began yelling. Such a commotion was made on the outside that Dr. Kilgo's voice was drowned.

"Before I would allow my son to attend a college where such a spirit as that exists," he declared, referring to the spirit shown by the crowd outside. "I would send him to the country to plow behind a mule. The mule would offer more decent society than such a parading crowd as that out yonder. I have seen football removed from Trinity College, and please God, before I will see it return here, I will sever all my connections with the institution," he declared impressively.

West Raleigh, N. C., November 7.—Tomorrow afternoon the annual cross-country run at A. & M. will be held. Much interest is being taken in the event and there will be more contestants this year than ever before. For the past two months a large number of men have been running daily in preparation for the event, and the race will be hotly contested.

On Tuesday afternoon the men ran a trial race over the course, V. A. Johnson winning his time being 17 minutes, 10 seconds. R. P. Hardie being second, W. K. Scott third, and D. E. Roberts fourth, the other men who participated being Olive, Hine, McLeod, McPhail, Patton, Milver, and Goodson. There will be about fifteen or twenty entrants in this race, and some record breaking time is expected.

The course will be three miles, starting at the Capitol and out Hillsboro Street to the Textile Building at the college, and return to the Capitol.

Important games to-morrow include: Indiana vs. Iowa, at Iowa City. Chicago vs. Northwestern, at Evanston. Mount Union vs. Michigan, Agassiz, at Lansing. Ohio State vs. Wisconsin, at Madison. Purdue vs. Rose Poly, at Lafayette. Missouri vs. Drake, at Columbia.

Chicago, November 7.—An off day in Central States football so far as "big" games to-morrow, will furnish contests mainly as final workouts before the battles which later are to decide championships. Perhaps the toughest of the day's battles in this section is the one between Drake and Missouri and Columbia, while another that may be fought is that in which Mount Union plays the Michigan Agassiz.

NOTRE DAME DOWNS PENN STATE TEAM

No Alibis Can Be Offered, All of Touchdowns Being Legitimate Scores.

State College, Pa., November 7.—Notre Dame last additional gleam on athletics at Penn State today by defeating the eleven representing that institution, 14 to 7. None of the touchdowns were the result of a fumble, so the alibi "fumble" cannot enter into the result.

Notre Dame scored first blood in the second period, when Dorris broke away for thirty-five yards after his teammates had already gained forty yards on a cleverly executed forward pass. Dorris passed the ball to Rockton on this run, and the latter crossed the line. Dorris kicked goal.

In the third period Notre Dame again scored, almost before the spectators could get settled. Lamb kicked to Finnegan, who was downed in his tracks. Einlaub made ten yards through center, and then went over on a long end run. Dorris again kicked goal. In the same period Penn State scored its touchdown, the result of line backs by Biller and Welty and a forward pass from Miller to Lamb. Miller kicked goal.

The work of Miller in running back punts was decidedly the feature of the contest. Several times he took the ball back for better than twenty-five yards and his broken field running was sensational. For Notre Dame, Dorris, Finnegan and Einlaub shone.

CAROLINA STARTS CARO MEE GENERAL

Tarheels Expect Real Battle. Protest Entered Against Half-Back Young.

Chapel Hill, N. C., November 7.—North Carolina's football aggregation encounters another gridiron struggle of similar proportions to the contest with Georgia, a week ago, when Washington and Lee was tackled in Lynchburg to-morrow afternoon. Discounting the reports from Lexington that the Tarheels have received a severe setback due to the injuries to their quarter back, Donahue, and other discouraging signs that would render the Lexington eleven less formidable, the Tarheels are anticipating an even greater fray than the one of last Saturday with the University of Georgia.

Twenty-two players will be taken on the trip to Lynchburg. Coaches Trenchard and Pendleton and Manager Frank Drew will make the trip with the squad, leaving Chapel Hill at 4 o'clock this afternoon. They will go west by Greensboro, reaching Lynchburg at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

From the twenty-two men taken on the trip, the eleven to start the game will consist of: Homecoming guard, Huske, left end; Captain Abernethy, right tackle; Ramsey, left tackle; Cowell, left guard; Foust, right guard; Tandy, center; Long or Allen, quarter back; Parker, full back; Fuller, right half back; Taylor, left half back.

At variance with the line-up in the Georgia game is the injection of a new full back into the array. Parker, whose line defensive work has won for him recognition in the regular line-up, will start at full back. Another difference from the line-up last Saturday is the return of Captain Abernethy at his old stand at right tackle, his absence from the Georgia game having been accounted for by injuries sustained in the V. P. I. game. At quarter, always the puzzling proposition for the Carolina coaches, Long will start the game. His success in making forward passes secured this position for him. The athletic authorities have entered protest against Half Back Young on the grounds that he played professional baseball last summer in West Virginia.

George Herbert Tells of Turner-Kilonis Match

Sporting Editor, The Times-Dispatch:

Joe Turner lost a hard match in Norfolk Wednesday night to John Kilonis, "the Greek Demon." The match was said to have been the best staged in Norfolk this season.

Turner should have won the match from Kilonis, and if he referred had done his duty, Turner would have been declared the winner on a foul.

The first fall was won by Kilonis in seventeen minutes, and Turner took the second fall in twenty-two minutes. The third and last fall went one hour and fifty-eight minutes, Kilonis winning the third fall by kicking Turner clear across the ring, knocking his wind out, then jumping on Turner and pinning his shoulders to the mat while Turner was gasping for breath.

The referee should have disqualified Kilonis and declared Turner the winner on a foul, but instead he tapped Kilonis on his back, declaring him the winner. Turner really deserves credit for the way he wrestled, which was clean at all times.

The men had a forfeit up to weigh in at 155 pounds at 6 o'clock. Turner weighed 157 1/2 pounds and Kilonis weighed 164 pounds. Turner refused to go on with Kilonis, saying that he was afraid that if he lost the bout it would hurt his bout with Albright. He agreed to go on only when I told him that I didn't think it would hurt him in Richmond, even if he did lose to a man that was seven pounds heavier. But as I said before, Turner should have been the winner instead of the loser.

After the bout Joe offered to bet any part of $500 at odds of 2 to 1 that he could defeat Kilonis, and said that he would like to get a return match with Kilonis at 155 pounds for a side bet and all the gate receipts, and he (Turner) would put up $100 that he could win from Kilonis in less than one and one-half hours of wrestling.

Light Work Given VIRGINIA'S SQUAD

Entire Team Will Be Given Rest To-Day—Ends Get Most Attention.

Charlottesville, Va., November 7.—Another week of football practice at Virginia has been concluded, as a day of rest for the entire squad of forty men has been declared for to-morrow by Head Coach Warren.

The work assigned the varsity to-day was very light, consisting of a half-hour drill in signals. The various plays were run off at a lively clip, and by next week the men should be in shape to stand the hard knocks of scrimmages in order to get in tip-top trim for the annual struggle with Georgetown to-morrow week.

All of the candidates for end were tried out in the daily scrimmage before the second and third teams. They alternated on the third squad, the second team directing plays at them. Speed Killion had the sextette in charge. Even touchdowns were made by the second team, Knox Walker, Speer, Hall and Rumbough taking the ball across.

The work of the second string backs is being closely watched by the squad of coaches and some of them may be given a chance to show their worth during the game to-morrow week.

Head Coach Warren said to-night that about eighteen players would be taken to Washington for the Georgetown game—the same number which made the trip to Atlanta.
